Introduction

MBA students visited the Akshaya Patra Foundation and ISKCON Temple, Bengaluru as part of practical learning. The aim was to understand large-scale non-profit operations, CSR, supply chain management, and the role of values in leadership.

Akshaya Patra Foundation

- Runs the world's largest NGO-led mid-day meal program.
  - Automated kitchens serve lakhs of children daily.
  - Efficient supply chain ensures timely delivery.
  - Supported by government, CSR, and philanthropy.
  - Impact: improved school attendance, nutrition, and education.

ISKCON Temple

- Spiritual and cultural centre that inspired Akshaya Patra.
  - Teaches value-based leadership and ethical management.
  - Lessons from Bhagavad Gita: discipline, mindfulness, balanced decision-making.
  - Focus on combining spirituality with social service.

Key Learnings

- Insights into operations & logistics of a large-scale NGO.
  - CSR as a driver of social entrepreneurship.
  - Importance of ethical, service-oriented leadership.
  - Integration of spirituality and management practices.

Conclusion

The visit was enriching, offering exposure to world-class operations and value-driven leadership. It inspired students to balance professional goals with social responsibility.
